A FORGERY.
 THE Proprietors of the SUNDERLAND BANK having had four Promissory Notes for Five Pounds each presented for payment, through one channel, which are forged, and which bear the appearance of their Notes for Five Pounds, the Public are desired to attend to the following description of the said forgery: And, if any suspicious person should offer any such forged notes in payment, they are earnestly requested to apprehend such person or persons, and give immediate notice to the Sunderland Bank, or to any of the Banks at Newcastle or Darlington, or to Messrs Allan and Stuart, Edinburgh.
 The Forged Notes appear to have been first drawn with a pencil, and afterwards covered with Indian Ink in the engraving part, and with common ink in the written part. They are ill executed, and in particular upon very bad paper, without any water-mark.
 The Real Notes of the old plate, which are imitated in the forgery, have WILLIAM RUSSEL, SUNDERLAND, in a water-mark, which is readily perceived on the least examination.
 Whoever can discover the person or persons concerned in the forgery, or offering the same in payment, knowing them to be so, shall, upon commitment, on satisfactory proof, receive FIFTY POUNDS; and upon conviction FIFTY POUNDS more to be paid by the proprietors of the Sunderland Bank, at their office in Sunderland. And any person or persons concerned in the said forgery, discovering his or their accomplice or accomplices, upon conviction, will be entitled to the above reward and his Majesty's pardon.

 His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the said Forgery, or offering the said Notes in payment, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious pardon to any one of them (the actual forger or forgers excepted) who shall discover his or her accomplice, or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

 They will further observe, that all the old notes having the water-mark as before described, (WILLIAM RUSSEL SUNDERLAND) are e-

From the London Gazette, July 18.
The following address has been transmitted, by Sir James Wright, Bart. Governor of Georgia, to the Right Hon. Lord George Germaine, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble address of the Judges, Grand Jury, and several other inhabitants of the Province of Georgia.
May it please your Majesty,
We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Judges, Grand Jury, and several other inhabitants of this young province of Georgia, met at your Majesty's Court of Oyer and Terminer, and general Goal Delivery, holden for this purpose, embrace this opportunity to testify our attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to return you our most grateful thanks for sending a body of your forces here, which relieved this colony from such a scene of tyranny, fraud, and cruelty, as would have disgraced any Asiatic country.

We also beg leave to make our most dutiful acknowledgments to your Majesty, for declaring this province to be at your peace, and for re-establishing a civil government here, by which means we enjoy the blessings of law and liberty, whilst the colonies in rebellion against your Majesty groan under tyranny and oppression.

We cannot pass over in silence the deliverance afforded this province, by the interposition of Almighty God, when it was invaded by a force of French and rebels much superior to that which the garrison consisted of: We attribute this deliverance, under God, to the bravery of the troops and seamen in your Majesty's service, and of the militia, the fallows in the merchants' service; and others, who voluntarily went into the lines, and manifested by their conduct how well men will fight when engaged in a good cause.

We further to enumerate, to a Prince of your Majesty's humanity, the many instances of oppression that were exercised by the French and rebels towards such of your Majesty's subjects that fell into their hands, as they knew to be well affected to your Government; many of whom were stripped of their clothing and sustenance, nay even of the beds they lay on, and are now pining under distress and poverty. Nor shall we repeat the bloody menaces that were uttered by the enemy, as well French as rebels, when they thought themselves sure of taking the town of Savannah, lest it should excite a spirit of rebellion in the minds of that blessed religion our fellow subjects.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall always use our utmost endeavours to promote an attachment to your Person and Government, and the welfare of the British empire: And we shall not fail to put up our prayers to Almighty God, that he will pour down his blessings on your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and your numerous offspring; that he will give you a long and happy reign; and that your posterity may sway the sceptre of the British empire till time is no more.

Madrid, June 20. The supplement to our Gazette of day concludes thus: "We just now learn, that the reinforcement from the Havana, so desired by Don Galves, was arrived at Mobile, which the better enabling that officer to pursue his operations, he was put in march for Pensacola, in search for General Campbell.

Paris, July 7. They write from Avalon, in Burgundy, that on the 4th ult. a dreadful thunder storm burst over the villages of Serinzelles, Givry, and Blannai, accompanied with a violent shower of hail, which lasted half an hour, and was of such astonishing size, that it has destroyed all the prospect of a harvest, and so demolished the branches of the vines, that they will not be in a condition to cut next year, or to bear fruit for many years. It is thought there will not be grain sufficient reaped for the use of the seed-time in September and October. The inhabitants are reduced to the utmost distress.

O. N. D. O. N.

This morning, an express arrived from Falmouth, with advice, that three more Frigate West-Indians, taken by Admiral Geary's fleet, were arrived there; and that two more were taken by two Gurney privateers.

Yesterday, advices were received at the Admiralty, that three more of the French St Domingo-men had been taken by some of our privateers, which make the number captured fifteen, out of the twenty-five.

The grand fleet, under Admiral Geary, we are credibly informed will return to port in a few days, for a few necessities that they are in absolute want of, but will soon return again to their station.

From the great value of the prizes taken by Admiral Geary, at the lowest computation, his share (as an eighth of the whole) cannot be less than thirty thousand pounds.

There was a report yesterday, that his Majesty's ships Monarque and Defiance had taken the Fier, of 50 guns, and four other sail of the West India fleet; that they were hourly expected to arrive, and that Admiral Geary had returned to his station, to watch the motions of the enemy.

Only four sail of the fleet of Martinico-men which Admiral Geary came in with, are insured at Lloyd's Coffee-House; a lucky circumstance for the underwriters.

The relief of Gibraltar is certainly one measure to be carried into execution as soon as the project of the grand fleet now at sea is fulfilled, and ships can be spared for that service.

Great-Britain has at this time in the West-Indies and America, in ships of the line, 50 gun ships, frigates, sloops, armed schooners, and cutters, no fewer than 114 sail, besides privateers from Europe, and others fitted out by the several islands.

Orders were sent yesterday from the Admiralty Office to Portsmouth, for eight sail of the line and two frigates to have their crews completed, and six months provisions put on board immediately with all expedition. To what quarter this force can be bound, is kept profoundly secret.

Yesterday, Sir Hugh Palliser, Bart. killed his Majesty's hand at St James's, on being appointed Governor of Greenwich Hospital; as did Major-General Rainsford, on being appointed Colonel of the 99th regiment of foot, and several other officers on their promotions.

Yesterday, Colonel John Campbell killed his Majesty's hand at St James's, on being appointed Governor of Milford Haven.

Yesterday, Sir Charles Gould and Sir James Matriot were at the levee at St James's; the former laid before his Majesty an account of court-martials, and the latter of the several captures from the enemy, since Christmas in the West India fleet.

A letter from Philadelphia, received by a Quaker in town, says, "My dear friend, I have not time to write much to thee, as the messenger I send it by is in a hurry to set off with dispatches to our friends at New York. I can only inform thee, that the Congress have quarrelled, and that the major part have declared for the King, and are ready to return to their allegiance."

A letter from Chardelton mentions, that six sail of merchant ships were loading there with indigo, rice, cotton, and other goods, and would sail for the port of London as soon as some men of war could be spared to convoy them to England.

By some authentic private letters from Virginia, it appears, that the principal of the inhabitants and people of property of that province have preserved an innate loyalty, and secret deference for the mother country, throughout that whole republican system, which has so long distracted America; and their new customers, the French, have so often referred them to the Congress for payment (whose paper currency has so long been sunk in every idea of public credit), that a return of peace with Great Britain, and with it of trade, commerce, and wealth, is with them at present a most desirable object, and to which it is expected the reduction of the Carolinas will most favourably contribute.

All the Carolina refugees have got orders to return to their country, and have been warned that no further salary should be paid them by government. Several of these refugees from Boston are also holding themselves in readiness, since a letter from Mr Irvine has been received from New England, declaring that the Massachusetts government would soon abjure the dominion of the Congress, and supplicate to come again under the British government. Lord Dunmore is again looking towards his government of Virginia, and Mr Attorney-General Randolph is to attend him. Most of the Maryland refugees are gone or going in the New-York fleet, not doubting but they will again be received with cordiality into the bosom of their friends.

The day before the Thynne picket left Jamaica, an express arrived there from Admiral Rodney, with the account of Don Sileno's fleet having been seen by a cutter within ten days sail of the islands. In consequence of this, the expedition which was to have sailed from Jamaica the 12th of June, under the direction of the Governor, was entirely given over, and dispatches with this intelligence were immediately forwarded to Colonel Polson, commander of the expedition on the Spanish main.

The report of the Spanish fleet having safely effected a junction with the French in the West Indies, is confirmed. The Spanish fleet arrived on the 2d of June in sight of Antigua, Admiral Rodney being still at Barbadoes, about 300 miles to the southward. Whether the Spaniards were joined by the whole French fleet, or only a strong detachment from it, is not said. The Centurion sloop of war arrived at Barbadoes eleven days before the Spanish fleet reached Antigua; from which it appears her passage was about fifteen days quicker. Had Sir George Rodney intercepted the Spanish fleet, Government should have received intelligence of it a long while since; nay, on the same day almost as they did their last dispatches.

As soon as the Marquis d'Almodovar returned to Spain from London, the Catholic King raised him to the dignity of a Duke, as a reward for the services done to his country in amusing the British Ministry with a formal negotiation for several months, under the most specious pretences, till the Court of Madrid had sent notice to all their foreign settlements, that a rupture between Spain and England was inevitable, and that they were to make preparations accordingly.

The last letters from Dublin mention, that a Dutch man of war of 60 guns had lately foundered off Kinsale, and all the crew perished.

Orders are issued from the War Office, for a muster of all the troops now on duty in the different garrisons in England, Scotland, and Wales.

A correspondent desires us to apprise our readers, that the Parliament will not probably exist one month longer. — St James's Chron.

The report of the malefactors under sentence of death, who have been tried at St Margaret's Hill, and expected to have been made this day, is postponed till to-morrow.

The grand jury under the Special Commission were on Tuesday discharged, and the prisoners have now all been tried, except a few who are charged with having been guilty of simple felonies, and who are reserved some of them in prison, and some out upon bail for the Surry assizes.

As the grand jury for Surry has been discharged; and no bill can now be found against Lord G. Gordon, under the Special Commission, it is impossible for any person, not in the secrets of the Ministry, to say when or where his Lordship will be tried.

It is said Lord George Gordon has received notice to prepare himself for trial the ensuing term at Westminster-hall. The Attorney-General made this offer to his Lordship as a mark of kindness; but Lord George returned for answer, that he was ready to appeal to the laws of his country, and therefore desirous of being brought to trial immediately. Upon the above notice, application was made for bailing his Lordship; but though any sum of money that should be required was tendered, it was peremptorily refused. — London Chron.

We are credibly informed by a correspondent, that Lord G. G. —, and a foreign officer, lately returned to the Continent, were intimately acquainted during their studies and abode at the University of Oxford; that they were constantly together since that officer's return to England with dispatches, and were seen arm-in-arm a short time before the demolition of a place of worship not a hundred miles from Lincoln-Inn-fields.

Several of the unhappy wretches lately executed, have, it is said, made discoveries, on the days before they suffered, of a very important nature, relative to their principal leaders; but as these leaders are men of high rank, and as the proofs cannot yet be fully substantial against them, Government are silent in their proceedings. Lord Loughborough had therefore a just right to point out the regularity with which the rebellion was carried on: and the grand jury have perceived in it something more than a common riot. Time will elucidate this matter, and Temple-bar may again be capitolly ornamented. — Morn. Post.

Yesterday a dispute, still further signification of his Majesty's pleasure, was sent to Newgate for John Glover, one of the three convicts who was to have suffered this day, for the riot at, and demolishing the house of, Mr Akerman.

The same day, a respite, until Thursday the 27th instant, was sent to the same prison for Benjamin Bowley, another of the three convicts for the above offence, who also was to have suffered the same day.

This day, were executed, pursuant to their sentences, the following convicts, viz.

John Gamble, at Bethnal Green, for assembling with others, and committing great riots and depredations, and pulling down part of the dwelling-house of David Wilmot, Esq; and throwing the same into the fire.

Samuel Solomonson, in Whitechapel, for feloniously assembling with others at the house of Christopher Connor, and beginning to pull down the same, and burning and destroying the furniture. And,

James Jackson, in the Old Bailey, opposite the goal of Newgate, for feloniously assembling with divers other persons, and burning and destroying the house of Mr Akerman, &c.

According to a return made by the Coroner of the City of London, to the Court of Aldermen, pursuant to their order of the 27th ult. of the several inquisitions taken by him, within one month before, upon the bodies of persons who had been killed by accident or otherwise, it appears that from the 26th of May to the 4th of July, the day of signing this return, he had sat upon twelve persons, five only of whom were shot, three (lunatics) had hanged themselves, and four were drowned. Of the four drowned, three are termed accidentally, so that one only can be attributed to the late riots, and that with much uncertainty, as the person so returned, it said to have been found drowned; consequently he may, or may not, be one of those who are surmised to have been thrown over Black-Friars-Bridge.

Into the three Hospitals, however, of St Bartholomew, St Thomas, and Gay, we are further told by the same account, 45 persons were admitted, all wounded or hurt in the late riots. Of these fifteen have died, ten remain now under cure in the said Hospitals; the rest have been discharged or are run away.

As all these numbers put together fall very far short, not only of the return said to have been made to Lord Amherst, but also of the number of those reported by eye-witnesses, to have been seen lying dead, it may be asked what is become of the rest. To this the only answer that can be given is, that some perhaps have been privately carried away and buried by their friends. Taking then the medium between both returns, we shall probably come nearer the truth, and be able to settle the number of killed and wounded at about 250, or 250 persons.

LAST NOTICE.

THE Creditors of JAMES DAVIDSON, late merchant in Dyfart, at a Meeting held upon the 14th instant, finding, that, notwithstanding repeated advertisements, several Creditors had neglected to give in their grounds of debt to Richard Tosh, writer in Kirkcaldy, the Trustee, directed the Trustee to publish another advertisement requiring them to lodge their grounds of debt, with affidavits on the verity, betwixt and the 20th August next; with certification, if they fail, they will be cut out of any dividend to be made by him; and recommended to him to make a dividend of the funds in his hands upon the first day of September next among such of the Creditors who shall betwixt and the said 20th of August, have produced their grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereon.

The purchaser of this lot will have a freehold qualification in the county. He will be entitled, besides the above property, to an annual feu-duty of 2 l. 10 s. 5 d.; and there is a near prospect of his drawing considerable compositions on the admission of singular successors in the feud lands. To be exposed at 900 l.

III. The Lands of Bengahill, Copwood Know, Dalton Hook, and Maltures of Linmill, in the parish of Drydale, consisting of about 340 acres, besides the Common; present rent 156 l. 12 s. and expected to rise considerably on the expiry of the current leases. The lands hold of the Crown, and are valued in the cess-books at 263 merks. On the farm of Dalton Hook there is a limestone quarry, which (exclusive of the above rent) was let last year for 21 l. and will yield above a double in after years, being situated in the middle of the common of Bengal, a field of several thousand acres, lately divided, and now under improvement. The lands in this lot are all inclosed and subdivided, except 74 acres of the common, allotted to it in the late division, mostly good land, and for which the tenants, on a proposal to sublet, were offered 20 l.; so, at the expiry of their leases, this will be a very improvable subject. To be exposed at 3200 l.

IV. The whole Estate in the parish of Dalton, (except Upper Dormont) with the Patronage of the Parish of Dalton; to be exposed altogether at 14,500 l.; and if not sold, it will be divided into three parcels, and exposed as follows, viz.

1. The Lands of Meikle Dalton and Kirkwood, and Filings thereof, with the Patronage of the Parish of Dalton, all holding of the Crown, containing about 714 acres, and paying presently about 340 l.; to be exposed at 7200 l.

This parcel is all inclosed and subdivided; and there is a very good mansion-house at Kirkwood, with gardens, orchards, offices, and out-houses of all kinds, for the accommodation of a gentleman's family. There is also above 90 acres of wood land, not rentalled; and the woods are very valuable. They sold at last cutting, in 1754, at 915 l.; and are now again very thriving, and fit for sale. Since 1754, the woods have been increased by 30 acres of more planting; and all this is exclusive of the full-grown old timber trees standing round the house and gardens of Kirkwood, and at the village of Dalton; computed to be worth from 600 to 4000 l.

2. The Lands of Holmains Dam, Little Dalton, Mill thereof, Kalkhill, Amigill, Butterwhat, and Part of Mouswald Common, all holding of the Crown, containing about 1211 acres, and paying presently about 273 l.; to be exposed at 6200 l.

This parcel is completely inclosed and subdivided; and there is made on several of the farms. There is also a convenient mansion-house and garden at Holmains, and 39 acres of wood land, not rentalled. The woods are valuable. They sold, when last cut, in 1767, at 750 l. and, being since well kept, are now very thriving. There is also detached clumps or parcels of oak and ash, on different parts of the estate, now fit for sale; and a rise of 50 l. or thereby is expected on the lands of Holmains, when the current tacks expire, in 1784.

3. The Lands called Fourteen Acres, consisting of about 73 acres, and paying presently 30 l. and 15 hens; to be exposed at 770 l. The purchaser of this parcel will have a freehold qualification upon the old extent.

And, at the same time and place, there is also to be sold, by roup, the Superiority of the Lands after-mentioned, in the lots following, viz.

I. The Superiority of the Seven Merk Land of Pearshyhill, called Craig-house Strade and Midge Brae, belonging in property to Joseph and Richardson, valued in the cess-books at 142 merks, and paying 20 merks of yearly feu-duty.

II. The Superiority of the Three Merk Land of Laidholm and Plewandah, belonging in property to William Johnston, presently under judicial sale at the instance of the apparent heir, valued in the cess-books at 140 merks, and paying 24 Scots of annual feu-duty.

III. The Superiority of the Forty Shilling Land of Rammercales, belonging in property to James Mounsey, valued in the cess-books at 90 merks, and paying 21 Scots of annual feu-duty, and 31 s. 4 d. in augmentation of the rental.

IV. The Superiority of the Forty Shilling Land of Cocket-hill, also belonging in property to the said James Mounsey, valued in the cess-books at 100 merks, and paying 21 Scots of feu-duty.

V. The Superiority of the Five One-half Merk Land of Raffils, Robywhat, Greensfield, and Howthart, belonging in property to Mr Carruthers of Hardriggs, valued in the cess-books at 245 merks, and paying 54 merks of feu-duty.

William Campbell writer to the signet will show the title-deeds, rentals, and current leases, plans of the estate, and conditions of sale. John Johnston at Shillhill, near Lochmaben, will show the lands.

Those who wish for further information, or incline to purchase by private bargain, may apply to Alexander Farquharson accountant in Edinburgh, who will be ready to treat, and to allow a reasonable time for payment of the price.
